Subject: Subject is a quality comparison of delivered young doves on bellow mentioned trainings and races between the breeders and between the states. The best participants will be awarded financially according to the Chapter „Awards“. The competition will supervise a realisation team consisting of Ing.Stanislav Matuška, Mikuláš Varga, František Vaculčík, František Král, Jiří Vrobel and the appointed FCI delegate.

Basic Information

- Fee for 1 dove is 60,- € (50,00 + 10,00 € VAT), there will be not necessary any later activation. Only the completely filled order form is considered as a binding order.
- There is possible to fill out the order form for participation in Talent Quatro Šternberk Test Station on web page www.talent-quatro.cz , menu “Application form”.

Receiving of the Young Doves

- The number of young doves from one fancier is not limited. One team for the FCI Competition purposes consists of 10 pieces max. If the fancier delivers more than 10 pieces, he has to mark the individual teams by letters “A”, “B”, etc. 1 young doves will be received free of charge for 5 paid young doves.

From 15.3. 2017 to 17.5. 2017

Every Tuesday, whole. Other time could be agreed by phone call. Use the possibility of transport by zoo-buses, we will update our routes.

- The young doves must be delivered in the age 30 to 40 days and must have the ring of the year 2017. At the moment of delivery, it is necessary to submit a veterinary confirmation of vaccination against the Paramyxio .

• Together with the young doves, we will take over their legible genealogy, property pass and owner's signature. Please, prepare the list of delivered young doves together with their names for the handover. This is very important, as we will not mention the ring numbers in the results from the security reasons, but only the names of the doves.

In case of non delivery of the genealogy or property pass or both of them, the original owner loses the right for awarding and share of the auction. This comes in favour of the organiser.

• The original owner, by taking over the young doves, by taking over the genealogies and by payment of the fee in full amount, agrees with the proposition in full extent and the new owner of the young doves becomes automatically the organiser of this competition.

Medical Care

• The organiser of this competition undertakes to do new vaccination against the Paramyxo, vaccination against the Diphtery, and vaccination with new vaccination against the Adeno. The Talent Quatro Šternberk Test Station will be under regular veterinary supervision of Mr. MVDr. Pavel Maňák.

• In case of death of a young dove, the participant has the right to send, free of charge, a new one, in term up to 30.5. 2017.

Trainings and Races

The actual races schedule is placed on www.talent-quatro.cz , menu Races & Competitions.

Awards

The awards are calculated from the amount without the 21 % of the VAT. The taxes from awards paid to foreign countries must be calculated in line with the laws of the Czech Republic. The awarding is planned for 1100 of paid young doves. In the case of plus, minus 5% of the non corresponding number of the paid young with the planned number, the amount of awards will be modified in both directions.

Awarding of races:

Tvrdonice	1. – 3. place	100 + 80 + 60 €
Zohor	1. – 3. place	120 + 100 + 80 €
Neusiedl am See	1. – 3. place	150 + 130 + 110 €
Körmend	1. – 3. place	180 + 160 + 140 €
Races total		1.410 €

participants; next, within 35 % and in the 4th race, they have to be within 20 %. In the last, final race, there wins the first coming young dove from all those, which have fulfilled the above mentioned criterions.

- The awards will be paid to the winners exclusively on their bank accounts. You will be asked to send the bank account number by www.talent-quatro.cz menu Talent, after finishing of entire race series and auction.

Auction of the young doves

The young doves will not be auctioned immediately after coming back from the final race. They will be offered both in home and abroad auction portals.

- In case of the first 50 coming young doves from the final race, the auctioned sum will be divided in proportion 50% for the original owner and 50% for the Test Station. The auctioned sum will be reduced by the reward of the auction portal.
- The prices of all other auctioned young doves will be reduced by the reward of the auction portal and then divided in proportion 40% for the original owner and 60% for the OLR.
- The young doves that will not be sold in the auction become the property of the OLR owner. He is allowed to make free with them.

Cancellation of the public competition

The organiser may cancel the public competition in case of extraordinary situations. Typical example of this would be the announcing the situation of infection by national veterinary body, e.g. birds fever. In this case, the young doves would be sent back to the original owners incl. the amount of 20,- € for 1 young dove.

But, after the agreement with original owners, there could take place a big auction, from which gain 50% would fall to the original owner and 50% to the OLR. The auctioned sum will be always reduced by the reward of the auction portal.
